Withholding if censor certificate to Kani Nilam

3403. SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Government have withheld the issue of Censor Certificate to a progressive Tamil Language Film 'KANI NILAM' dealing with the menace of corruption in high places;

(b) what is the exact sequence or dialogue which is proposed by Government to be deleted by the producer of the said Film;

(c) whether the said dialogue or sequence points to any particular individual and if not, what are the reasons therefor;

(d) whether Government's policy is to encourage production of progessive films particularly those dealing with social evils like corruption; and

(e) if so, whether the above films fits into such category and if so, what are the reasons for not issuing the certificate without any cuts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) No, Sir. The film was issued a 'U' Certificate. However, the Central Government acting under the powers conferred on it by Section 6 of the Cinematograph Act, 1952, called for the record of proceedings of the film and decided to impose one additional cut.

(b) The cut imposed by the Government relates to the following dialogue: "Just go and fall at the feet of Chief Minister's Wife—you have a chance only if she forgives you", which occurs in Reel No 6 of the film.

(c) to (e) While dialogue/sequence does not point to any particular individual, nevertheless it makes a highly derogatory reference to a high public office, which is calculated to denigrate the governmental system established by due process of law. While Government would certainly like the medium of the film to deal perceptively with a wide range of social evils, it cannot allow references, dialogues and scenes which cast aspersions on the structure and institutions of Government or public offices duly established by Law. It is in this light the additional cut in question has been imposed.
